Confidentiality

- All of our communication becomes part of the clinical record, accessible to you upon request. I will keep confidential anything you say as part of our counseling relationship, with the following exceptions: (a) you direct me in writing to disclose information to someone else, (b) it is determined you are a danger to yourself or others (including child or elder abuse), or (c) I am ordered by a court to disclose information. I am a mandated reporter of abuse in the state of Georgia.

Social Media/Internet Policy

- I do not accept invitations from clients to personally network on social media sites. This is a common practice in my field, and this policy helps to protect your privacy. If you have questions or concerns about this, please let me know.
- It is my policy not to conduct Internet searches on my clients. I rely exclusively on the information clients have provided to me directly in our counseling work. However, in matters that could involve significant safety issues (both mental and physical), I reserve the right to use this source of public information.

Use of Diagnosis

Some health insurance companies will reimburse clients for counseling services and some will not. In addition, most will require a diagnosis of a mental health condition and indicate that you must have an “illness” before they will agree to reimburse you. Some conditions for which people seek counseling do not qualify for reimbursement. If a qualifying diagnosis is appropriate in your case, I will inform you of the diagnosis before we submit the diagnosis to the health insurance company. Any diagnosis made will become part of your permanent insurance records.

Complaints

Although clients are encouraged to discuss any concerns with me, you may contact my supervisor, Tatiana Matthews, LPC, CRC, or file a complaint against me with the organization below should you feel I am in violation of the standards of the American Counseling Association.
