Experience

Dr. Michael Epstein is a board-certified child and adolescent psychiatrist whose clinical passion and primary focus is working with children and teenagers. He provides both in-person and telehealth care, specializing in the evaluation and treatment of anxiety, depression, ADHD, autism spectrum disorder, developmental disabilities, and OCD. While he also sees adults, his work centers on helping young people and their families navigate challenges during critical developmental years.

Dr. Epstein focuses on thoughtful, evidence-based medication management and takes a collaborative approach to care. He believes treatment works best when patients and families feel heard, understood, and actively involved. His style is warm, structured, and down-to-earth, creating a space where children and teens feel comfortable being themselves while parents feel supported and informed.

Use of Diagnosis

Some health insurance companies will reimburse clients for counseling services and some will not. Most require a diagnosis of a mental-health condition before reimbursement. Any diagnosis made may become part of your permanent insurance records.

Confidentiality

All communication becomes part of the clinical record, which is accessible upon request. Confidentiality may be broken if there is danger to self or others, suspected abuse, or if ordered by a court.

Code of Ethics

Dr. Epstein abides by the confidentiality, ethics regulations, and licensing requirements set forth by the Georgia Composite Medical Board.

Emergencies

Please call the office during business hours Monday through Friday and calls will typically be returned within 24 hours. If your situation is urgent, email Dr. Epstein directly, contact your primary care physician or pediatrician, call 911, or go to the nearest emergency department.

Social Media

Dr. Epstein does not accept invitations from clients to personally network on social media sites. This policy helps protect your privacy.

Complaints

If you are unsatisfied with the care provided, please discuss concerns directly with Dr. Epstein. If unresolved, you may contact Tatiana Matthews, LPC (Founder and Managing Director of Atlanta Specialized Care.)
